

Social-Emotional Learning as a Support to Suicide Prevention

SSbtitle

11/12/20

1

© 2021 Committee for Children Title

Amy Walker

Director of Strategic Partnerships
Committee for Children
awalker@cfchildren.org

Committee for Children

Our Mission

To foster the safety and well-being of children through social-emotional learning and development

Our Advocacy

Committee for Children advocates at both the state and federal levels for policies and laws that support social-emotional learning in schools, prevent bullying, and protect children

16.5 MILLION
CHILDREN

50
STATES

The Goal of SEL in Schools

Promote ✓

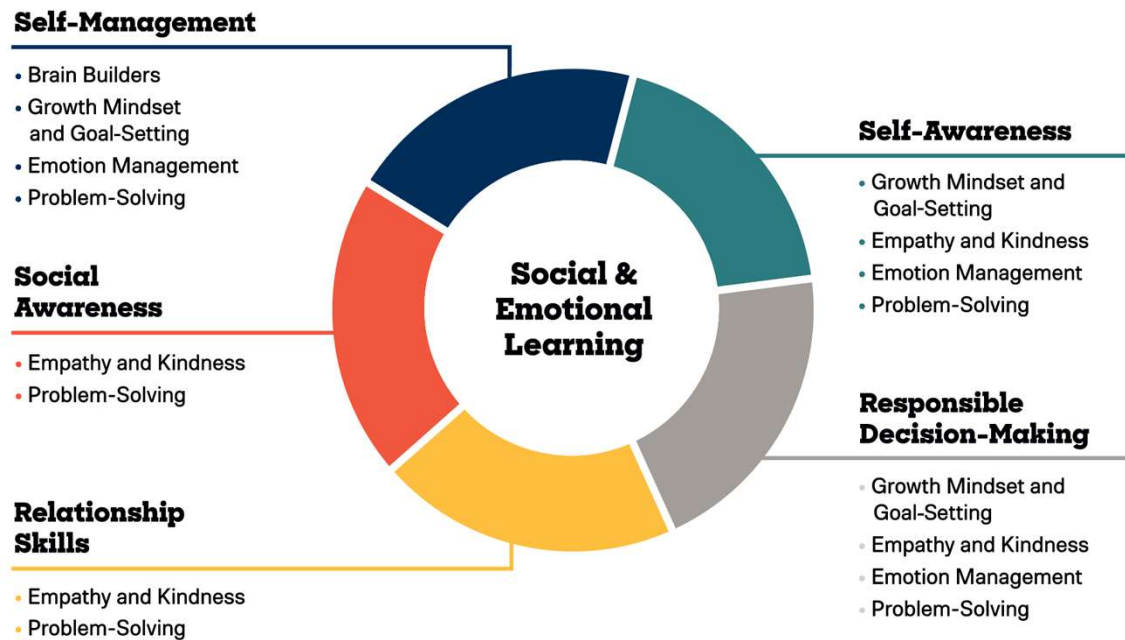

- Social-emotional competence
- Positive classroom behavior
- Academic achievement

Prevent ⚡

- Conduct problems
- Aggressive behavior
- Emotional distress

Second Step® Elementary and CASEL Competencies

Second Step® Bullying Prevention Unit

Based on the latest field research, the Bullying Prevention Unit teaches students how to recognize, report, and refuse bullying.

- Unlimited online staff training
- Lessons, posters, and a DVD for each grade
- Family materials (letters and activities)
- Additional online resources (teaching, implementation, and evaluation tools)
- Lessons and family materials in Spanish
- Teaching remotely? Please reference our Second Step® Bullying Prevention Unit Remote Guidelines

Second Step® Child Protection Unit

The research-based Child Protection Unit provides extensive online training, age-appropriate lessons, and family education materials so educators, families, and children have the tools they need to recognize and effectively respond to abuse.

- Unlimited online staff training
- Lessons, posters, and a DVD for each grade
- Family materials (letters, videos, and activities)
- Additional online resources (teaching and implementation tools)
- Lessons and family materials in Spanish
- Teaching remotely? Please reference our Second Step® Child Protection Unit Remote Guidelines

Case Study: Toole County, UT

Thank You